Lomita Theatre Offers Great Features to Movie Patrons

Scene from "Breed of the Sea"
The new management of the Lomita Theatre has lined up a scintillating collection of pictures for the coming week, including "3 Bad Men," a wild and woolly story of the middle 70's; "The Blue Eagle," "Summer Bachelors," and Ralph Ince's great production of Peter B. Kyne's swashbuckling, piratical, missionary tale, "Breed of the Sea."
"Breed of the Sea" reflects all the genius of the popular author for thrills and gripping romance in unusual situations, and is a shining commentary on the ability of Ralph Ince as both actor and director. In a dual role of pirate chieftain, and his clergyman twin brother, the star portrays two widely divergent types. Later, a pirate in missionary clothes, he puts the fear of the Lord into the heart of a bad man of the South Seas. The story is replete with melodrama of a smashing he-man type. Margaret Livingston is at her best as Marietta, a South Sea Island girl, and Dorothy Dunbar is as lovely as ever as a missionary's fiancée and wife.
Bull Stanley, general terror; Spade Allen, card sharp, and Mike Costigan, horse rustler, stalk through the Sioux lands of South Dakota, in "3 Bad Men." The picture is based on Herman Whitaker's novel "Over the Border," and is full of the wild thrills of frontier life in the middle 70's—mile a minute stage coaches, two-gun bandits, wild wolves, wild horses, and wilder vagaries of human nature. George O'Brien, Olive Borden, Lou Tellegen, J. Farrell MacDonald, Tom Santschi, Frank Campeau, that lovable daredevil rascal and Phyllis Haver are outstanding stars.

"Summer Bachelors" is a story of night club life on Broadway. "When wives are away, husbands will play." It is played by a "million dollar cast," including Madge Bellamy, Allan Forrest, Matt Moore, Hale Hamilton, Olive Tell and Walter Catlett. It appears from this story that "Summer Bachelors" prefer blondes, brunettes and red-heads.
An all-star cast, including George O'Brien, Margaret Livingston, William Russell and Janet Gaynor appear in "The Blue Eagle," a smashing tale of the navy during the world war.

Ringling Circus
Will Be in Easy Reach on Sept. 14
Yep, youngsters, it's really true! Meaning that a rumor heard sometime ago is now confirmed by the official announcement that the Ringling Bros. and Barnum & Bailey Combined Shows will positively exhibit at Santa Ana, Wednesday, September 14.
At that time the world's first and only five-ring circus will be within easy reach of local sawdust fans. With it will come the only genuine white elephant ever brought to America. He is "Pawah," the world-famed sacred white pachyderm from Burma, who will be the foremost feature of a menagerie composed of more than a thousand animals.
The big show is now a third larger than it was when it last visited this locality. Enormous new displays have been introduced such as ninety zebras, camels and horses performing at one time on a mammoth pedestal. On a similar series of circular raised platforms, thirty-two of the show's forty-three elephants dance, run and perform in unison with the topmost of the ponderous actors twenty feet above the ground.
Of the sixteen hundred people carried on tour this season more than eight hundred are the world's foremost acrobats, bareback riders, ground and lofty gymnasts, high-wire artists and super athletes.
